Camp Easter Seal

Greetings

Many of us are anxiously waiting to resume the activities we’ve had to put on pause due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This is especially true for all of us at Camp Easter Seal. Earlier this spring, we made the difficult decision to put Camp on pause for the 2020 summer season. The health and safety of campers is our first priority.

We miss the buzz of chatter, music, singing and laughter that normally fills the camp at this time of year, even as regular groundskeeping chores, cabin and facility upkeep, site repairs and general maintenance continue.

Although in-person camping is not possible this year, Camp Easter Seal is offering virtual, on-line ways of staying connected with campers and their families. Many campers have shared fond memories and told us how they cannot wait to attend Camp Easter Seal next year. Shawn Seiferling is one of them.

Shawn is always on the go. Throughout the year, he is active with the SaskAbilities Quality of Life program and participates in many different sports, including track, baseball, golf and powerlifting. With his active lifestyle, it’s no surprise that the one event he most looks forward to is his trip to Camp Easter Seal.

Shawn can tell you all about camp! He started attending in 1998 as a youth and has looked forward to his week at camp ever since. He has built a lifetime of friendships and happy memories – such as the first time he waterskied and felt the lake water mist on his face or the many horseback rides he has enjoyed.

CONTINUE ON OPPOSITE SIDE

Camp Easter Seal is the only completely barrier-free camp of its kind in the province and, for many children, youth and adults experiencing disability, the only camp they can attend fully and safely. Your donations to Camp Easter Seal will ensure campers like Shawn stay connected to the camp community this summer – and are able to return to their favourite place in the world next year.
