

SaskAbilities' Supplier Code of Conduct and Affirmation

As a supplier to SaskAbilities and to maintain good standing, please read our Supplier Code of Conduct, report any matters of non-compliance that you become aware of, and affirm your commitment to SaskAbilities' Supplier Code of Conduct.

1. Human rights, labour standards, and workplace safety

Suppliers shall comply with all applicable laws regarding forced and child labour.

Suppliers shall take reasonable steps to ensure their supply chains and recruitment practices are free of forced and child labour.

Suppliers shall comply with applicable labour standards.

Suppliers shall provide safe and healthy working conditions in compliance with workplace safety laws and regulations.

Suppliers shall adhere to Human Rights legislation and ensure their operations are free from discrimination based on religion, creed, marital status, family status, sex, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, age, colour, ancestry, nationality, place of origin, race or perceived race, receipt of public assistance, and gender identity.

2. Environmental responsibility

Suppliers shall minimize negative environmental impacts by complying with environmental laws and regulations.

Suppliers shall do their part to contribute to a sustainable world.

3. Business integrity, ethics, and compliance

Suppliers shall be honest and fair in their business practices and ensure their operations are free of corruption, bribery, and crime.

Suppliers shall be transparent and truthful in their communications and interactions.

Suppliers shall comply with applicable local, provincial, and federal laws and regulations.

Suppliers shall monitor their operations and business practices for evidence of forced and child labour, environmental non-compliance, and illegal activities and crime.

Suppliers are encouraged to continuously improve their practices and ensure that matters of non-compliance are addressed promptly.